

Deacon Study Day

Preaching Catholic Social Teaching an integral part of the diaconate ministry

Rev. Leo Almazán

I was born in México City, and am a member of the Southern Dominican Province, U.S.A. I made simple profession on August 12, 2001, and solemn profession on May 26, 2004. I was then ordained to the priesthood on July 30, 2005.

Before joining the Dominicans, I worked as political adviser, high school professor, and college professor. After my ordination to the priesthood, I worked as parish priest, high school campus minister, and theology professor. In 2007, I was sent to Rome, obtaining a STL in Moral Theology at the Alphonsian Academy in 2011. I am presently pursuing a STD - Doctorate of Sacred Theology {Moral} at the same institution.
